A Complete List of
BRITISH & COLONIAL LAW
REPORTS & LEGAL PERIODICALS
ARRANGED IN CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER
WITH BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTES,
AND
CURRENT EDITIONS OF BRITISH & COLONIAL
STATUTE LAW & DIGESTS.

Compiled by
W. HAROLD MAXWELL
FOR
SWEET & MAXWELL, LIMITED,
LAW BOOKSELLERS,
3, Chancery Lane, London, England,
AND
THE CARSWELL COMPANY, LIMITED,
LAW BOOKSELLERS,
19, Duncan Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
AND ISSUED FOR PRIVATE CIRCULATION ONLY.

1913.

IN this list an attempt has been made to include every edition of every British or Colonial law report (except American reprints). The notes are not intended to supersede those in Soule's Lawyer's Reference Manual, and as regards the reports dealt with in that Manual only a bare list of different editions has been given, as a rule. But a number of editions unknown to Soule have since been found, and a still larger number of new Reports, more especially Colonial Reports.

Principally by the agency of various Societies the older cases in the King's Courts and cases in lower Courts—such as Courts Leet—are now being made accessible. No list of these, which are of great interest to the legal historian and student of the evolution of our law, has hitherto been made. So many of them being privately issued it has been a somewhat difficult task to obtain knowledge of them, but it is hoped that the list is complete. Extracts from local Court rolls are printed in many local histories; for information regarding these, reference should be made to Gross's Bibliography of British Municipal History, and Hearnshaw's Leet Jurisdiction in England.

Cases of Appellants relating to Duties on Houses, Windows, Lights, Male and Female Servants, Horses, etc., with the opinions of the Judges thereon. 3 vols., 12mo., 1787.

(3) There are no title pages, and the cases are numbered from 1 to 2706. They are paged separately and there are indexes to the whole. They were issued for official use.

(4) Issued as an appendix to the Law Journal.

(5) There have been three editions of vol. 1.—the last in 1881.

(6) The best collection of these cases.

(7) Edited by Chambers and Pretty. There is another series of cases decided by referees edited by Pretty and others, of which two parts have been issued, but it gives a digest only of cases decided by the Courts, and does not contain the judgments.

Joseph and Beven, 1863 (9)	1	1859—1860
Creasy, n.d. (10)	1	1859—1870

(1) Ramanathan's Reports were issued to fill the gaps in the published reports. They are compiled from official sources. Much information regarding Ceylon Reports will be found in their prefaces.

(2) Collation: i-x, 1-660, list of titles, 2 pp.

(3) Was published in parts. The cases from Oct., 1833, to May, 1837, were digested by Morgan; from June, 1837, to Dec., 1838, by Conderlag; and from 1839 to 1842 apparently by Beling and Lorenz. It ends with page 315. Afterwards a continuation was published in 6 parts (parts 1 and 2 by Conderlag, and 3 to 6 by Prins), it has neither title nor index, commences with page 347 and ends with page 486. There is an appendix of three cases (one dated 1862) paged i—xi.

(4) Collation: Vol. 1, xvi + 280 p. Vol. 2 (4) + viii + 148 p. Vol. 3 (2) + xxxiv + 323 + (2).

(5) Collation: (2) + 285 + lii + (4) + xxviii.

(6) Vol. 1 has one part only (Police Court Appeals). Vols. 2 and 3 have three parts each (Police Courts, Courts of Requests, District Courts Appeals).

(7) 100 pages and title page.

(8) Extremely scarce. We have never seen a complete copy.

(9) A Digest of Decisions. Collation (4) + 63 + xvii. pages.

(10) Part 1 only. 167 pages.

(1) "Rules and Orders of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William promulgated during 1831 and 1832, to which are added Notes of Decisions of the Court on Points of Practice, and an analytical digested index of the cases reported in the present and two former editions." 8vo., 1834. From this it seems that the 1834 edition did not reprint the cases in the earlier editions. Apparently by "two former editions" is meant an Appendix to the first edition, and the first edition itself, both of which were published in 1829.

(2) Collection of Orders made and passed by the Supreme Court at Fort William, including decisions of the Court.

(3) Second edition, with additional cases, by W. A. Montrieu. Collation, t. p. + 4 + 271. First edition, 1841.

(4) Paged continuously with the 2nd edition of Morton. Collation, t. p. + 3 + 272—431 + 7; t. p. + 431—639 + 21.

(5) These notes were utilised by Smoult and Morton, but it seems probable that they were never published as a whole, as no copy is known to exist.

(6) "Considerations on the Hindoo Law as it is current in Bengal." It contains a number of decisions not reported elsewhere. They are digested in Morley's Digest.

(7) Part I. only. 4 + 181 + xi. pages.

(8) Reprinted 1905.

(9) Vol. 2 has 304 pages and Vol. 3 104 pages. Neither has title or index.

(10) Vol. 2 has 212 pages, no title, or index.

(2) Issued by the Chief Commissioner and Financial Commissioner. It reprints such cases from the Circulars as had not become obsolete.

(3) Some of these contain Select Cases, others relate to the practice of the Court, etc.

(4) Decisions on appeal from Oudh. They bear serial numbers from 1 to 50. The pagination is irregular. There is a table (3 pp.) of the first 30 cases, and a preface (1 p.).

(5) Continued with N.-W. Provinces Series.

(6) Appears to have been originally published to end of 1905 (pp. 1-394), and supplements issued containing the Rulings of 1906-7-8, with continuous pagination.
